

Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House presents --

The Old-Fashioned Art of Scrapbook Journaling

April Vacation Week Youth Workshop

Tuesday - Friday, April 18th - 21st      9:30 - 11:00 a.m. daily

Try your hand at the popular form of scrapbooking combined with journal-keeping, a practice important to the Alcotts!

Did you know that ... Mr. Alcott overcame his shyness to propose to his wife-to-be by revealing his feelings through a journal?

Did you know that ... part of the Alcott sisters' home-schooling entailed writing in daily journals?

And did you know that ... throughout their lives, all the Alcotts diligently kept journals, often enhancing them with original artwork, newspaper clippings, recipes, and photographs?

Youths ages 9 - 12 (grades 4th - 6th) are invited to learn about the traditional art of journal-keeping as they create their own original scrapbook journal! See samples of authentic Alcott journals and scrapbooks, then decide on a theme and illustrate journal entries with drawings, photographs, clippings, tags, cards, and more. By week's end, take home the beginnings of a personal record that may last a lifetime!

No experience necessary; all materials provided

Cost: $150 (Orchard House Members - $120)

Workshop limited to 15 youths; reservations & pre-payment required

Phone 978.369.4118 x106 to register

"Preserve your memories, keep them well; what you forget, you can never re-tell."

399 Lexington Road      Concord, MA      www.louisamayalcott.org