

The pleasure of your company is requested at

“Meg’s Wedding”

Saturday, May 19, 2007

Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House

399 Lexington Road Concord, Massachusetts www.louisamayalcott.org

Join Alcott descendants and Orchard House Staff and Volunteers as they re-create the wedding day of Anna Alcott and John Pratt -- which became Meg March and John Brooke's wedding in Little Women! Take a special Living History Tour and re-live the wedding ceremony, enjoying an Alcottian reception with cake and punch graciously provided by Concord's Colonial Inn. Newlywed and anniversary couples most welcome; come dressed in Victorian garb too, if you like!

LIVING HISTORY TOUR TICKETS - AVAILABLE ALL DAY

Adults - $9; Seniors/Students - $8; ages 6-17 - $6; ages 2-5 - $3; under 2 free (Orchard House Members $5/$4/$3/$2 respectively); Family Rate (2 Adults, up to 4 Children) - $23

~ Reserve your tour tickets in advance to receive a 10% discount coupon in The Museum Shop! ~

WEDDING RE-ENACTMENT/RECEPTION TICKETS - 2:30 P.M. ONLY

(includes refreshments and meeting descendants)

Adults - $3; Seniors/Students - $2; ages 2-17 - $1; under 2 free (Orchard House Members $2/$1/50¢ respectively); Family Rate (2 Adults, up to 4 Children) - $6

For reservations, phone 978.369.4118 x106