

Louisa May Alcott's Orchard House is pleased to present ...

The Alcotts' Abroad:

Louisa and May's Grand European Adventures

A unique evening with noted Alcott scholar Daniel Shealy

Wednesday July 26, 2006 7:30 p.m.
399 Lexington Road Concord, MA

In April 1870, Louisa May Alcott and her sister May set sail for a European tour with traveling companion Alice Bartlett of Cambridge, MA. They remained abroad over 18 months, and sent home numerous letters about their exploits. This entertaining program will examine the events of the tour, and its effects on the Alcott sisters.

DANIEL SHEALY, Professor of English at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte, has published 10 books on Louisa May Alcott, including Alcott: In Her Own Time (2005). He is currently completing Little Women Abroad: The Alcott Sisters' Letters from Europe. Professor Shealy resides in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina.

Recommended for ages 13 & up; Victorian after-dinner refreshments provided
Costs: $10 per Adult/Senior/College Student; $5.00 for ages 13-17
(Members of Orchard House - 20% discount)

For further information and reservations, please phone 978.369.4118 x105
or visit www.louisamayalcott.org